

James McGibney

Director I.S. – Rudolph and
Sletten

- 14+ Years in Information Systems
- Most recent 2+ Years Director – Rudolph and Sletten
- Previous 5 Years, Founder Sapias (formerly SecuraTrak)
 - Raised $24M
 - Built investor and board team to include former CEO of AT&T and President of Bank of America.
 - Authored nine patents, in particular, US Patent 6,509,867, which was groundbreaking within the GPS industry.
- 4 Years, United States Marine Corps
 - Non Commissioned Officer in Charge, Marine Security Guard.
 - Network Operations – Third Surveillance Reconnaissance Intelligence Group – Okinawa, Japan.
 - Awarded Navy Achievement medal by Secretary of the Navy.
- BS from CTC – Microcomputer Technology
- BS from CU – Double Major, MIS & BA
- Harvard Business School – Executive Education Program.

Company Overview

- Founded in 1960
- Acquired by Perini Corporation in 2005 as a wholly-owned subsidiary
- Self-performing general contractor
- Ranked 32nd among the Top 50 in Domestic General Building Revenue
- Over $800 million of new construction this year
- Over 85% repeat clients
- No corporate debt

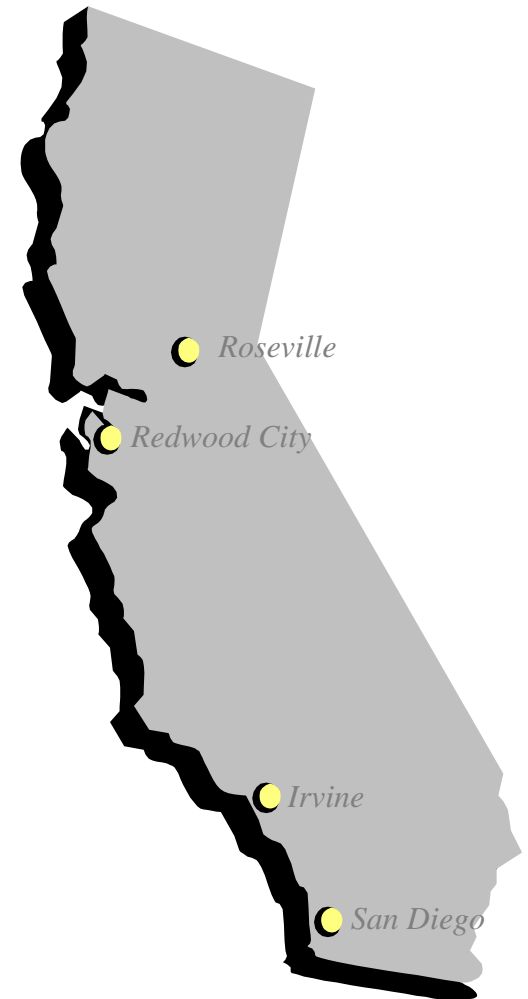

Office Locations

Corporate Headquarters:

- Redwood, CA
25 miles south of San Francisco

Regional Offices:

- Irvine, CA
47 miles southeast of Los Angeles
- Roseville, CA
20 miles north of Sacramento
- San Diego, CA

Project Types

Entertainment

Lucasfilm Ltd.

Monterey Bay Aquarium

COPIA

La Jolla Playhouse

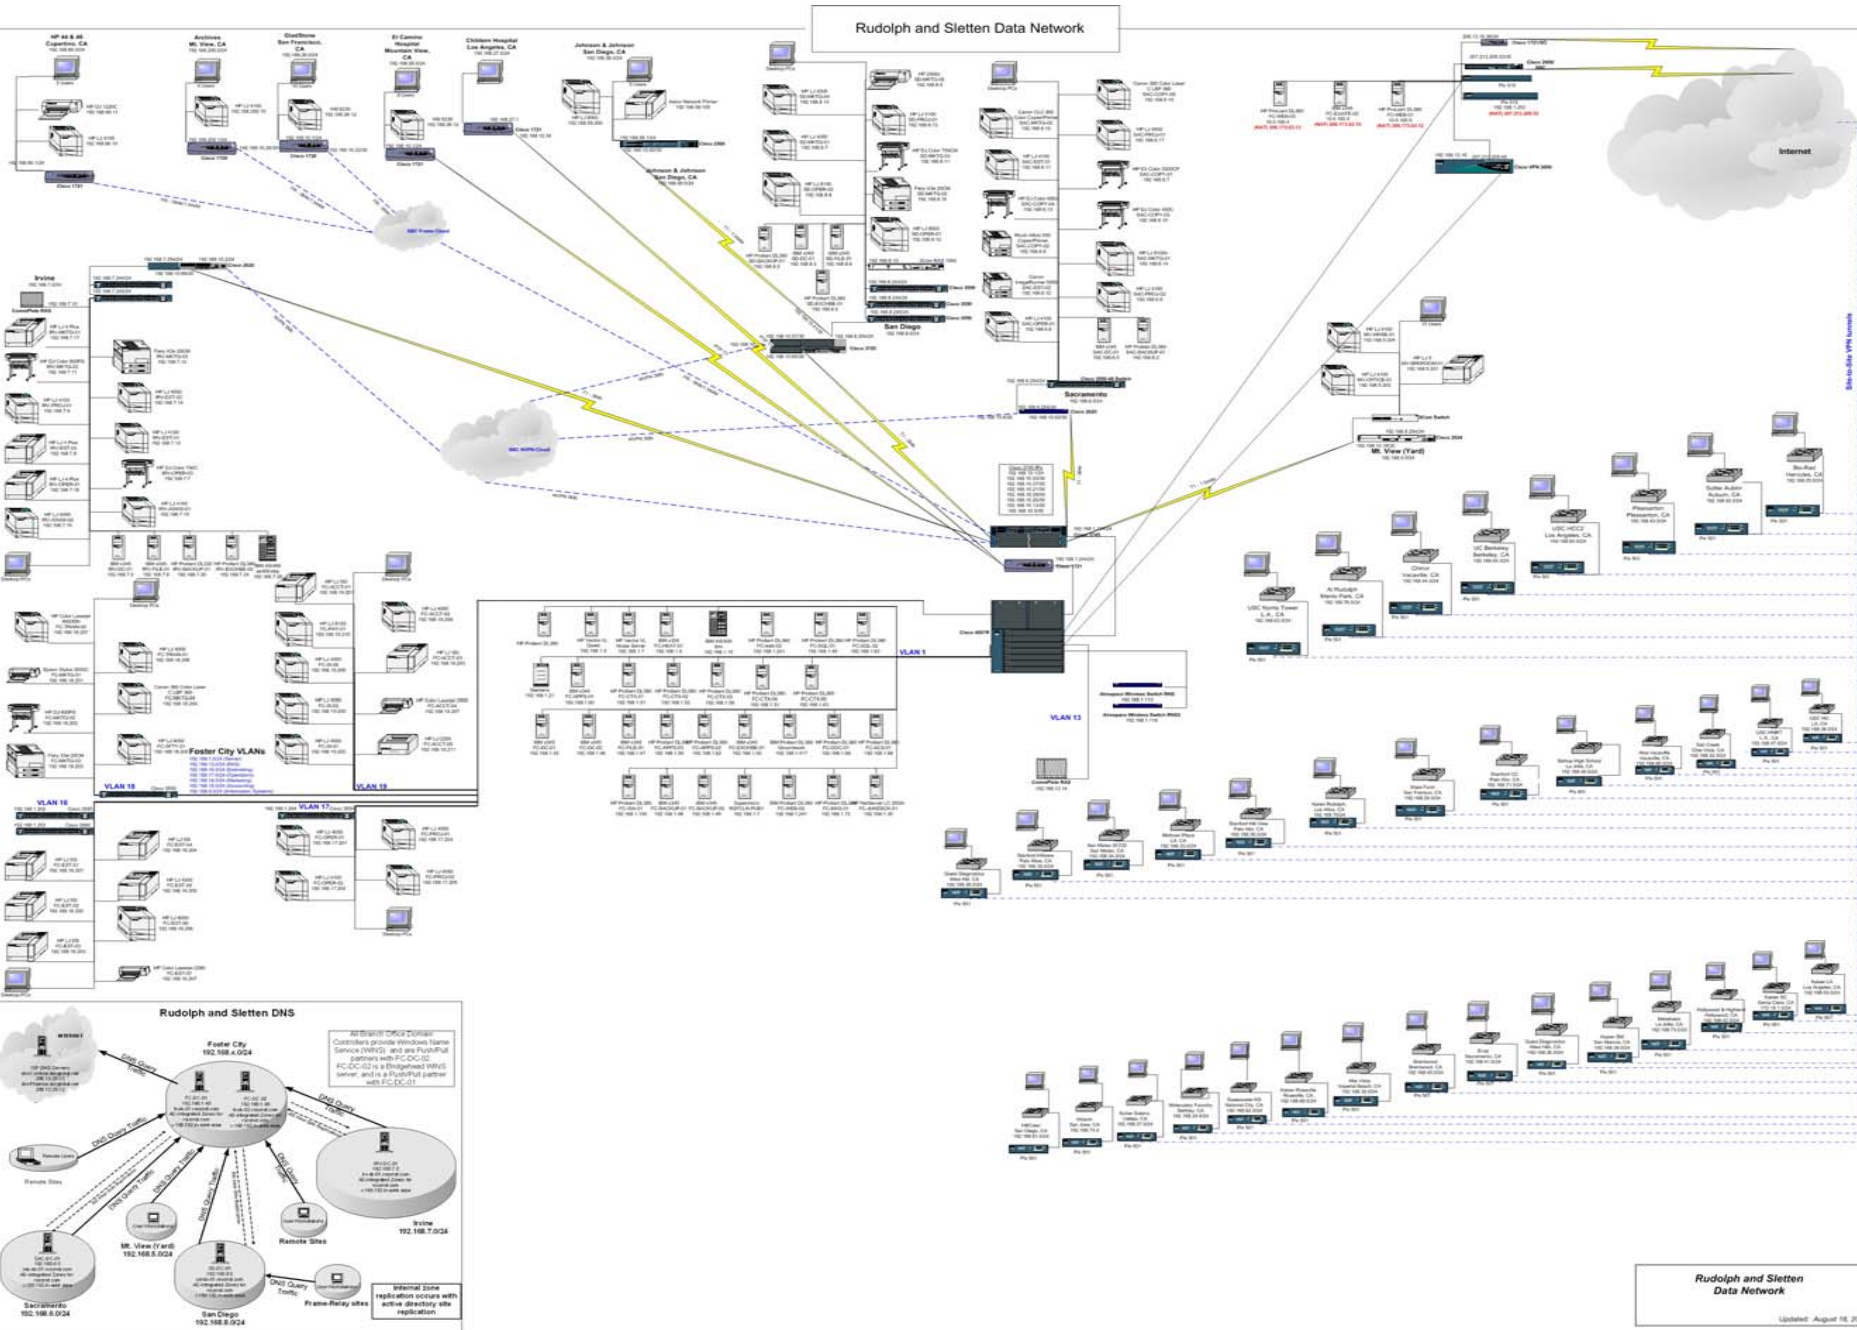

Project Types

Commercial Offices

Why Mobile Technology?

- Tether extremely mobile work force to business systems (Job sites/regional offices)
- Leverage lighter-weight devices (Tablets, PDA's)
- Support job sites anywhere regardless of access methods available
- Save $$
 - Initial trailer set-ups (Cabling)
 - Flexible job site configurations (Trailer moves/adds)
 - Extended wireless reach (Entire job sites)
- Satisfied/productive end users

Coolness Factor

- Extended wireless LAN capabilities
 - Entire job site wireless LAN availability
 - BelAir Networks
 - Mesh redundancy available
 - Total workforce and trailer flexibility